RE: Economic Price Adjustment (EPA) Notification

To our valued customers:

We have faced higher prices for materials and labor since 2011, absorbing those increases and holding our prices with you to date. We have reached a point where we need to increase our prices. Please let this serve as notice that prices will increase effective August 1, 2014.

Please reference the link below for our price list, effective August 1, 2014.
